
STATE CENTRAL BANK
PENSION COMMON TRUST FUND

The State Central Bank Trust Department manages a fund available to qualified retirement plan participants called the Pension Common Trust Fund. The fund's objective and strategy is one of seeking long term capital growth by investing in a portfolio of domestic and international stocks. The fund manager may also select investments in stock mutual funds and fixed income securities.

The attached Morningstar.com™ report describes the type and diversification of the publicly traded assets in the portfolio and the risk characteristics of that portion of the portfolio. The cash reflected on the attached report is held in a temporary cash management account that pays a rate of interest that is set each month using commercial paper rates derived from data supplied by the Depository Trust and Clearing Corporation.

William Logan, Chairman of the Board of State Central Bank, managed the fund beginning with its inception in 1992 through 2007. It is currently managed by Tyler Logan, Trust Officer of State Central Bank and reviewed each month by the Directors Trust Committee. State Central Bank has been in continuous operation for over 150 years. The bank is headquartered in Bonaparte and has branches in Farmington and Stockport, and its Trust Department serves all those locations. The Pension Common Trust Fund is not FDIC insured.

The annual performance of the Pension Common Trust Fund on the table below is calculated by subtracting the previous year's unit price (i.e. 2018) from the latest year's unit price (i.e. 2019) and divides that result by the previous year's unit price (i.e. 2018) to calculate the return for each year. The annual returns are then averaged for the most current 3, 5 and 10 year periods.

The Pension Common Trust Fund Performance on the table below is net of plan level expenses. As of June 30, 2020, year to date plan expenses were: .17% of the total value of the Pension Common Trust Fund. Plan level expenses are transaction fees which include brokerage commissions and audit fees from third parties which are charged at cost to the fund and charged against participants' accounts. State Central Bank does not charge the Pension Common Trust Fund any fees.

The performance information provided presents returns over time. The performance information represents past performance and cannot guarantee future results. Current performance may be lower or higher than the performance shown. Investment return and principal value will fluctuate. An investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original purchase price.

Participant investments and redemptions in the Pension Common Trust Fund are transacted at month end rather than on a daily basis. Pension Common Trust Fund performance calculations include the reinvestment of dividends and capital gain. For the period ending June 30, 2020, the rate of turnover of assets in the Pension Common Trust Fund portfolio was: 0%.

That rate was calculated by dividing the total net proceeds of assets sold during the year by an average fair market value of the fund over the course of that year.

Your portfolio is aggressive. An asset mix such as yours normally generates high long-term returns but can be very volatile. Financial planners typically recommend these types of mixes for investors who have investment horizons longer than 10 years, need high returns, and are comfortable with a high level of risk.

You have a value portfolio. Compared with a benchmark with a similar investment style:

- ◆ You have a lot of exposure to sectors marked by this icon.
- ◇ You have very little exposure to sectors marked by this icon. You should take special note of your low exposure to healthcare. While these stocks can be volatile, they are still an important component of the market and offer superior growth prospects.

Large Cap Growth	15.12	39.26
Mid/Small Value	40.54	11.47
Mid/Small Growth	12.76	11.07

Your overall portfolio style: Value

Your portfolio's stock exposure is biased toward conservatively priced value stocks. Among these, it is worth noting that compared to the broader stock market, you have a healthy mix of small, medium, and large companies. Depending on your investment goals, you may want to further diversify your portfolio by increasing your exposure to growth stocks.

Change Benchmark: S&P 500 similar investment style

You have a value portfolio. Compared with a benchmark with a similar investment style:

- ◆ You have a lot of exposure to stock types marked by this icon. You have an extremely high weighting in the high yield area. Most financial advisors would suggest that you diversify your stock exposure among a broader variety of stock types.
- ◇ You have very little exposure to types marked by this icon. You should be aware that your portfolio has relatively little exposure to both slow-growth and classic-growth stock types. While individual stocks in these parts of the market rarely turn in the extravagant returns seen in hotter areas, these issues have historically generated strong returns over the long haul, and you should think twice before shunning both.

You have a fairly healthy stake in foreign stocks. Comparing your exposure with a common international index:

◆ You have a lot of exposure to regions marked by this icon. You have an extremely large position in Asia Emerging. This is very risky because this region consists of emerging markets, which carry special currency, political, and other risks.

◆ You have very little exposure to regions marked by this icon. Please note that you have a low weighting in Europe Developed, the largest region of the international market. Underweighting this region a little probably isn't a big deal, but you shouldn't neglect such a large and important region without good reason.
